Section 1 Scope

The degree programme and examination regulations for the research-oriented Master's degree programme in English Studies leading to the degree 'Master of Arts (MA)' supplement the valid version of the General Examination Regulations for the Bachelor's and Master's Degree Programmes at the Faculty of Humanities, Social Sciences, and Theology at FAU – ABMStPO/Phil – dated 27 September 2007.

Section 2 Qualification for a Master's Degree, Certificates and Admission Requirements

(1) <sup>1</sup>A subject-specific degree as defined in Section 35 (1)(1) ABMStPO/Phil shall be a degree in a two-subject Bachelor's degree programme in English and/or American Studies. <sup>2</sup>Subject-related degrees or degrees considered to be not significantly different within the meaning of Section 35 (1) no.1 in conjunction with paragraph 2 ABMStPO/Phil shall be degrees from the fields of linguistics, literary or cultural studies, provided subject-specific knowledge accounting for at least 60 ECTS credits was obtained in one or more of these areas, with a focus on the areas English Studies and/or American Studies.

(2) The following additional documents shall be included with the application as stipulated in (2)(2)(2) Appendix 1 ABMStPO/Phil:

1. A CV in tabular form,
2. Evidence of proficiency in English at a level equivalent to at least C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) for languages or equivalent evidence (for example as set out in the table of equivalence published by the Language Centre at FAU), and
3. In the case of paragraph 1, sentence 2 an academic paper written by the student in English during their first degree programme (e. g. assignment/seminar paper or a chapter from the thesis) of between 5 and 20 pages in length providing evidence of advanced knowledge in at least one of the areas relating to English Studies or American Studies.

(3) <sup>1</sup>The decision as to whether the degree can be classed as a subject-related degree or a degree which is not significantly different in terms of qualification within the meaning of (1)(2) shall be taken on the basis of the Transcript of Records and the academic paper pursuant to (2)(3). <sup>2</sup>For applicants with an overall grade in their subject-specific degree or, in the case of Section 35 (4) ABMStPO/Phil, an average of their achievements to date of between 2.51 and 3.30, a selection interview shall be held; the remaining applicants who cannot be admitted directly to the degree programme pursuant to Section 5 (2) Appendix 1 ABMStPO/Phil shall not be admitted to the second level of the qualification assessment process and shall receive a rejection notification that sets out the reasons for the decision. <sup>3</sup>In the selection interview, which is held in English, applicants shall be assessed according to the following criteria, which are weighted as specified:

1. Quality of academic knowledge of literary and cultural studies with relation to Great Britain and/or linguistics and applied linguistics, especially with relation to the English language (30 %)
2. Ability to apply methods used in the humanities and social sciences, analyse texts in a broad sense, show understanding of linguistic issues and cultural processes, and identify and analyse cultural practices and representations (40 %)
3. Quality of English skills and knowledge of the English language (30 %).

Section 3 Scope and Structure of the Master's Degree Programme, Examinations, Teaching and Examination Language

(1) <sup>1</sup>The degree programme is offered with or without a specialisation and comprises modules worth 120 ECTS credits. <sup>2</sup>It can be studied in one of two specialisations (Culture and Literature or Linguistics and Applied Linguistics) that students can choose at the beginning of their studies. <sup>3</sup>If no specialisation is chosen, a minimum of 30 ECTS credits must be completed from Linguistics and Applied Linguistics and a minimum of 30 ECTS credits must be completed from Culture and Literature. <sup>4</sup>The specialisations and elective modules in the Master's degree programme in English Studies as well as the type and scope of the examinations shall be set forth in the Appendices 1 to 6.

(2) <sup>1</sup>The teaching and examination language of the Master's degree programme in English Studies is English. <sup>2</sup>Individual courses and examinations may be held in a different language (in particular German); further details are set out in the Appendices and the module handbook. <sup>3</sup>In any case of uncertainty, the examination language shall be the same as the teaching language.

Section 4 Calculation of Final Grade

<sup>1</sup>In the specialisation Culture and Literature, the module wild card, Academic Language Skills modules, the elective module and an additional module from the first year of study chosen by the student shall be disregarded in the calculation of the final grade. <sup>2</sup>In the specialisation Linguistics and Applied Linguistics the final grade shall be calculated based on all mandatory modules, with two modules from the first year of study to be chosen by the student being disregarded in the calculation of the final grade. <sup>3</sup>For students without a specialisation, the final grade shall be calculated using all modules except for the module wild card and two further modules from the first year of study to be chosen by the student. <sup>4</sup>Students must notify the Examinations Office of the modules that they have chosen to be disregarded at the latest after the grade of the last examination achievement is announced; if no choice is submitted, the worst module grade or the two worst module grades shall be disregarded.

Section 5 Compulsory Elective Modules in specialisation Linguistics and Applied Linguistics

(1) <sup>1</sup>Modules worth a total of 80 ECTS credits must be chosen from the compulsory elective modules in the Linguistics and Applied Linguistics specialisation. <sup>2</sup>A maximum of 30 of the required 80 ECTS credits can be gained by completing modules from other areas (see Appendices 2 and 5).

(2) Students who choose the 'Advanced grammar' module in the 'Academic language skills' module group cannot take the module 'Syntax/construction grammar' as a compulsory elective module.

(3) Students must choose at least two modules that are completed with a 'written assignment'.

(4) <sup>1</sup>In the modules 'Optional language module 1' (O-1) and 'Optional language module 2' (O-2), language courses are available in all languages except English (with the exception of translation courses) that are not the language in which the student took their first degree or obtained their university entrance qualifications; e. g., depending on the courses offered by the Language Centre, Chinese, French, Italian, Dutch, Norwegian and Spanish (provided the admission requirements of the Language Centre have been fulfilled). <sup>2</sup>Language courses must be chosen for the same language in each module. <sup>3</sup>If both modules (O-1 and O-2) are taken, in module O-2 language courses can either be chosen to improve skills in the language chosen for O-1 or language courses can be taken in another language.

Section 6 Legal Validity and Transitory Provisions

(1) These degree programme and examination regulations shall come into effect on the day after their publication.

(2) <sup>1</sup>The fifth amendment statute of 7 March 2017 shall come into effect on the day after its publication. <sup>2</sup>It shall apply to all students starting a degree programme from the winter semester 2017/2018 onwards.

(3) <sup>1</sup>The sixth amendment statute shall come into effect on 1 October 2017. <sup>2</sup>It shall apply to all students starting a degree programme from the winter semester 2017/2018 onwards.

(4) <sup>1</sup>The seventh amendment statute shall come into effect on 1 October 2021. <sup>2</sup>It shall apply to all students starting a degree programme from the winter semester 2021/2022 onwards. <sup>3</sup>Examinations according to the previously valid degree programme and examination regulations shall be offered for the last time in summer semester 2026. <sup>4</sup>From the date stated in sentence 3, those students who are affected by the examination regulations becoming invalid shall take their examinations in accordance with the currently valid version of the degree programme and examination regulations.
